A recent graduate of Theatre Design, i have spent all my life within the theatre, be it performing, working as a technician or more recently design.

I am interested in creating multi-sensory environments that allow an audience to escape to a world, which immerses and encapsulates them within the piece.

What an audience brings into a space and takes away, and how their personal experience is shaped, really interest me as a deviser, designer, maker and practitioner.

From bold and symbolic, scenic shapes, to delicate puppetry and object manipulation.
